Face In a Crowd

Gary Lewis & The Playboys

She doesn't know my name, she couldn't feel the same
Got no fortune, got no fame but she's not to blame
'Cause I'm a guy who's very commonplace
I was born to be another face in a crowdI met her yesterday, couldn't think of what to say
So she turned and walked away, it happens every day
'Cause I'm the kind who'd never find a place
I was born to be another face in a crowdA guy like me never has, has a chance
'Cause I don't rate a second glanceThere's millions just like me waitin' for a chance to be
Someone who is worthy of a young girl's love
There's millions just like me waitin' for a chance to be
Someone who is worthy of a young girl's love
