Song Seven (Second Demo)

Interpol

You can't sit up
You fell too fast
You come at the right time
Yeah, you come too fastYou bloom in spring
Yeah, you move the sky
You've come in singing
Yeah, you call me a liarYou were like a cloud
Yes, you are a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sourYou were like a flower
You were just like a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sourDon't give up
(I owe you)
No don't give up
Oh don't give up
Don't give up
(I owe you)
You were like a cloudYes, you were a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sourYou were like a cloud
You were just like a flower
Then you were a lime
Now our love is sourHere I feel I wish
I could just see it
The love the hate
The things that separateForcing conscious
To conscious every small attack
It takes a small man
To notice but not to act upConfrontation, complication
Needs a foundation
I'm calm baby, I'm calmYou were like a cloud
Yes, you are a flower
You move I love life
Is all we needThen you were a lime
Now our love is so sour
You move I love life
Is all we need
So sour, so sourDon't give up

No don't give up
Oh don't give up
No don't give upStart again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again buttercup
(I owe you)Start again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again, start again dear
(I owe you)
