

Daybreak's Race

Echo Orbiter

Together, without anything
No words, weâ€™re just here
What is silence like with you?
Itâ€™s all new to me

Youâ€™re a sacred entity to me and I wouldnâ€™t want to Desecrate your unweathered soul

Fill this vacancy and act on endless possibilities
We should take time by the hand and lead it where we feel

Somethingâ€™s not right; nothing is wrong
Say the word and all those doubts are gone
I can tell you I know where I belong

I donâ€™t want to go it alone
What we know remains to be seen
The dawn is catching up to us
