

Nightfall

Hollis Brown

So no on we go. Some they find they never know. Thing's ain't what you planned, at least you got someone that understands. Blame it in the summer wind. Don't you say goodbye. Don't you ever wonder why. Thing's aren't what you planned. At least you got someone to hold your hand. Hold it in the summer wind. Blame it on the summer wind.
