Dont Know Why

Vania Borges

One by one, drinks are gone
Do I have to stay?
Hate the sound of one more pound
As it rolls awayWhy did I need your proof?
When I knew the truthAnd I don't know why
I just let it slip by
Me all the time
I just wish you'd 've triedI dont want to know your game
Let alone her name
No matter what you say to me
We are not the sameWhy do you make me cry?
Try to justify
Don't right your wrong with my mistakes
'Cause my head's held highAnd I don't know why
I just let it slip by
Me all the time
I just wish you'd 've of triedAnd I don't know why
I just let it slip by
Me all the time
I just wish you'd 've of triedDreams we have as kids all fade away
Now, it's not the sameAnd I dont know why
I just let it slip by
Me all the time
I just wish you'd 've of triedAnd I don't know why
I just let it slip by
Me all the time
I just wish you'd 've of tried, yeah
