

Angels Calling

Laura Branigan

(Rosetta Stone/Jan Mullaney)Everytime I see you
I get a feeling deep inside
I want to be near you
I want to be always by your side
You know my wants, you know my needs
You never turn your back on me
You know I play, you let me stray
You're always there to rescue meEverytime I see you
Angels calling, stars are falling
I hear sounds of love
When I'm near you
Heavens singing hearts are ringing
I hear sounds of loveEverytime I see you
I feel my secrets falling out
When I'm near you
I lose my defenses, drop my guards
It's been so long, always so wrong
Love was never good to me
I know you care, you're always there
Your love was heaven sent to me
