Who Am I Drinking Tonight?

Edens Edge

I gotta say
After only just a couple days
You?re hands down outright blowin? my mind
In nearly every single way
You?re amazing and yet
There?s only so much I can get from picnics, long walks, flowers and talks baby here?s what I suggest
It?s time I see your belly out to a bar
How about you Show me what kind of cowboy you are Chorus:
Are you a Kenny tequila
Buffet margarita
Or an Alan Jackson hurricane
Are you a good time, flask of moonshine Goin George Strait to my brain

A girl can tell a lot about a boy in one shot
I gotta know you got a Bocephus side
So what?s in the cup order it up
Who am I drinkin? tonight
You might not have guessed
Judging by my heels and lacy dress
I?m a Wynette, Gretchen, Loretta Lynn
I?ve learned from the best
Women like that know how to throw a good back Gotta have a man that can keep up with all of that
Chorus
So pick your poison
And make it two
What kind of trouble are we getting into
Chorus
