Knock On Wood

Prefab Sprout

They didn't need a driver
They walked a thousand miles
He left her on the roadside
He thumbed himself a rideHe swore he'd never leave her, he meant it till he did
He swore he'd never leave her, he meant it till he did
Before you say you're lucky, before you say he's good
Knock on woodBroke your promise, broke your wordHe's climbing up a ladder
Heaven has begun
He's found another angel
She'll take him down a rung or twoShe swears she'll never leave him, she means it but she will
She swears she'll never leave him, she means it but she will
Before you say you're lucky, before you say she's good
Knock on woodShe swears she'll never leave him, she means it but she will
She swears she'll never leave him, she means it but she will
Before you say you're lucky, before you say she's good
Knock on woodBroke your promise, knock on wood
Broke your word, knock on wood
Broke your promise, knock on wood
Broke your word, knock on wood
Broke your promise, knock on wood
Broke your word, knock on wood
