

Throw It All Away

Staind

It doesn't feel like this is over
It's never felt like it's begun
Always looking over my shoulder
Waiting for the end to come And then you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all away And you feel like you're still here bleeding
You're bleeding till there's nothing left
It doesn't seem to ever be enough for you
It leaves you empty in the end And then you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all away It's never enough
To break down inside
It's never enough
To hold onto pride
It's never enough
To give up your soul
It's never enough It doesn't feel like this is over And then you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all away
