

One More Day (no Word)

Todd Rundgren

One more day
They said we'd be home for Christmas
But I'm still here today
One more day
I went to see the first lieutenant
He said, "Shut up and wait"
One more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
One more day
We don't pick no more trees
'Til the union okay
One more day
If they don't get a contract soon
Then I don't think we can stay
One more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
All alone, all my friends are gone
Ears of stone, eyes gone blind
Too little to do and too much time
One more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
One more day
I haven't seen my girl
In a year last July
One more day
She hasn't even written a letter
But I try not to cry
One more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
All alone, all my friends are gone
Ears of stone, eyes gone blind
Too little to do and too much time
One more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
Ooh, one more day, no word
