Foreign Kicks

We Are Scientists

Take your time, I can wait
I'll remind that it's late
I'll drive you home
Yeah, I'll drive you home
In a while I'll be gone
But for now all I want
Is to drive you home
Well, I'll drive you home again
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Promises aren't enough
All the sins, all at once
But I'll drive you home
Would I drive you home again?
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
It's timing, baby
Forget about the summer
It's over
It's timing, can't we
Forget about the summer?
It's over
It's timing, baby
Forget about the summer
It's over
It's timing, can't we
Forget about the summer?
It's over
It's over, it's over
It's over, it's over
It's over, it's over
