Don't Play Your Rock 'n' Roll To Me

Smokie

Don't play your rock 'n' roll to me,
That ain't the way it's meant to be,
I ain't so blind that I can't see,
Just let it lie, let it be.

Well I know you think I'm crazy, hangin' round,
But I was sort of hopin' you'd change, from the girl I'd found.
But your words just sound like rock 'n' roll lies to me,
And they're just about as burned out, as a worn out forty-five,
And you can't expect them to keep our love alive.

So, don't play your rock 'n' roll to me,
That ain't the way it's meant to be,
I ain't so blind that I can't see,
Just let it lie, let it be.

Well I guess you had me fooled, for a while,
With your come-on looks, and your Mona Lisa smile.
But your rock 'n' roll is getting out of time, to me,
Go sing your lines so someone else, that someone else may be,
The fool you always thought you saw in me.

Don't play your rock 'n' roll to me,
That ain't the way it's meant to be,
I ain't so blind that I can't see,
Just let it lie, let it be.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by CHAPMAN, MICHAEL DONALD / CHINN, NICHOLAS BARRY
Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by