

White

Palaye Royale

Lies
Your dirty lies
Lost in your eyes
Your big blue eyes
They can paint the sky
Don't be so scared
To be yourself
Alright But time
Hasn't been kind
Losing your mind
Tryna find
A place where you can lie
To yourself
Are ya happy alone Yeah then you're on your on Way to go And Imma take this bed
A flag so it turns to white
She's just the woman that
Keeps me warm at night
I said
Wah wah brick road
Awah wah brick road Lights
Bushed full
Into your heart
Behind your soul
Which is now gone
Like your soul
So many years ago Alright Then you know Imma take this bed
A flag so it turns to white
She's just the woman that
Keeps me warm at night
I said
She walks the streets so mean
And there's people at my feet So stop
There
Stop
There
Children with the white flags in the air And I am
So scared
When I dawn I won't be there
Yeah Wah wah brick road

Alright
What lies you told
Awah wah brick road
I said "take ma' money but not ma' soul"Wah wah brick road
Yeah
What lies you told
Awah wah brick road
Take ma' money but not ma' soulImma take this bed
A flag so it turns to white
Keeps me warm at night
I saidShe walks the streets so mean
And there's people at my feet
Everybody's 'bout to scream
And what you gonna think you're meanWah wah brick road
What lies you told
Awah wah brick road
Take ma' money but not ma' soulWah wah brick road
What lies you told
Wah wah brick road
Take ma' money but not ma' soul
