Something I'm Not

Reggie and the Full Effect

[Incomprehensible]You might have been something I'm not
You must have said words I forgot
What if it did come crashing down
We'd still get screams without a soundCan you feel your life
Come falling on your faceYou'll renew it, you're like a child
Your mother said it
What if it again it comes crashing down
And what if screams don't have a soundCan you feel your life
Come falling on your face
And you throw it way
Don't throw it away todayThrow it away
Throw it away
Throw it away
