

Walk Between the Lines

Witchcraft

Walking between the lines, that's what makes my life worth while
When no one knows what i mean, is when i have success

Cryptic and reclusive, you bend your back for me
Hiding in the shadows, complications over you

Keeping track of what's important, is all that matters in the long run yeah yeah
What ever echoes back, who makes you realize
You are not alone, even tho it hurts

Calm my mind with tempered thoughts, oh you fuel my heart and blood inside Flawless and fearless you wish i was

Climb the walls and your high, you better come down and wait a while Oh frustration for another mile

oh,oh

oh,oh

oh,oh
