

Be Apart

Porches

they try to feel it out
i leave the house
and now my body moves
it is so physicalit's got me so awake
the darkness hanging
black water by my side
i will go out tonightcause i wanna be apart
i wanna be apart
of it alli wait for it to come i am so patient
and when it really does
i let it have me whole
