

Rumour Has It

Donna Summer

Rumour, rumour, hear all about it
Rumour has it and I'm gonna shout it
Rumour, rumour, read all about it
Rumour has it and I have got to shout it
Rumour, rumour, read all about it
Thank you so much, alright
Now I'll tell you what I heard
The rumour has it all around the town
Someone's looking for a girl like me, where can she be found?
I wonder if it's who it is, I wonder if it's really him
It's got to be the man I love and no one else but him
There's a rumour, there's a rumour
They say he's gonna make this girl his everything
(There's a rumour, there's a rumour)
Love her and surround her with all those beautiful things
(There's a rumour, there's a rumour)
It was the most wonderful moment in my life I had
My life ended on that evenin', I lost him, Lord, it hurt so bad
There's a rumour, there's a rumour
You never know just what you've won until you've lost, ooh
The object of the game is not to pay the cost, ooh
Anyone can play the game, there are no rules, oh
And you never know just what you've won until you lose
There's a rumour, have you heard it?
(There's a rumour, there's a rumour)
Have you heard it, rumour rumour?
(There's a rumour, rumour has it)
There's a rumour, such a rumour, yea
(There's a rumour, there's a rumour)
There's a rumour, such a rumour
