Make It Real

Bill Gaither

Iâ€™ve seen a lot of crazy things done in your Name
I know the tricks behind the magic show
Iâ€™ve almost thrown the towel in a time or two
And walked away from everything I know
But I canâ€™t fill this emptiness inside of me
Or calm the troubled waters of my mind
So if youâ€™re really out there and youâ€™re listening
Then prove to me that those who seek will find

If you can just see fit to show me some of who you are
If you can shed some light into this broken sinnerâ€™s heart
I need to know the truth and I need something I can feel
I need you to make it real

There must be some good reason why you brought me here
Through valleyâ€™s where the shadows hover close
Down here thereâ€™s a mask to cover every face
But your sweet face I long to see the most
So if you think thereâ€™s just the slightest hope for me
In spite of all my questions and my doubts
Then let me hear your still small voice speak out my name
And let me know what others talk about

If you can just see fit to show me some of who you are
If you can shed some light into this broken sinnerâ€™s heart
I need to know the truth and I need something I can feel
I need you to make it real

I need to know the truth and I need something I can feel
I need you to make it real
