

A Woman's Heart

Chris De Burgh

A woman's heart is filled with passion
A woman's heart is filled with lust
If you don't believe that these things happen
Could be the biggest mistake that a man can make
A woman's night is filled with dreaming
Of the perfect man who may not be you
If we don't see what she's been missing
Could be the biggest mistake that a man can make
She wants to get near to you
Don't turn her away
She wants to get through to you
She wants to say
Give me your night
And I will show you my passion
Give me your lust
And I will drink you dry
Give me your dreams
And I will show you a lover
Give me your heart
And I will hold you close
And I will love you till the day I die
A woman's day is filled with longing
For a little romance and company
If we don't look or just don't listen
Could be the biggest mistake that a man can make
A woman's heart is yours forever
She will be true to the one in her life
If we don't give her love and affection
Could be the biggest mistake that a man can make
She wants to get near to you
Don't turn her away
She wants to get through to you
She wants you to say
Give me your night
And I will show you my passion
Give me your lust
And I will drink you dry
Give me your dreams
And I will show you a lover

Give me your heart
And I will hold you close
And I will love you till the day I die
She wants to get near to you
Don't turn her away
She wants to get through to you
She wants you to say
Give me your night
And I will show you my passion
Give me your lust
And I will drink you dry
Give me your dreams
And I will show you a lover
Give me your heart
And I will hold you close
And I will love you till the day I die
