People think they know me but they don't
People say they know me but they don't
People say they love me but they don't
People think they know me but they don'tThey're a little bit warm
They know a bit about some things
They know shit about some thingsPeople think they know me but they don't
People say they know me but they don't
People think they own me but they don't
People think they know me but they don'tDon't make this personal
Like you don't know
Let's roll reverse it all
I'd like to knowIf I'm a little bit warm
I know a bit about some things
I know shit about anythingPeople think they know me but they don't
People say they love me but they don't
People think they know me but they don't
