

Surrender

All Saints

Something in the wine
That accentuates the mood
Like a child at school
You're the blackboard I concentrate on you You close the curtains
I am certain this is more than fun
Your fingers remove my clothes
(As you let go)
Beneath the floor one by one I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I
I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I surrender my Surrender my bounds to you
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my Like a flower, you unfold
Leading a dance all on your own
And like a dead man
I don't move This is my moment, this is my moment
This is my moment a magical moment
This is my moment, this is my moment
This is my moment a magical moment Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my See like, I believe that when two people meet
And express themselves, it's truly sweet
It's a great form of communication
But it has to be the right combination
(Oh, I know you're so right) With these feelings we could be spreading love
Throughout the nation
But you have to search, not just anyone will do
That's why, your mission is to find that someone who surrendered to you I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I surrender my
I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I surrender my To you, ooh
To you, ooh I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I surrender my
I feel so sweet as you kiss my feet
And you undress me as I surrender my Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my, surrender

Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my, surrender Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender my
