

Ballad Of J.J. Decay

Anti-Nowhere League

Well gather around you boys now and listen to the man
He says we've fought evaded but united we will stand
    We'll sacrifice the older ones living in the past
    We'll burn up their religions and we'll all be free at last

We'll put a hat upon his head and then we'll call him GodAnd then we'll share our health in him like peas do in a pod

This is the story of a man with his future in his head
    But no-one ever listens to him when he's dead
        We're all getting older
        The light is on and bolder

We're all getting olderWe'll follow him throughout the land obeying his command
    We'll dance a sort of hatred that we think we understand
    The children came a-running from their houses of decay
        And laid the trust upon a fool who found a better way

He preach the words of wisdom with his hands and with his mouthThen everyone believed him and then he believed himself

This is the story of a man with his future in his head
    But no-one ever listens to him when he's dead
        We're all getting older

The light is on and bolderWe're all getting older
Decay(Spoken voice in background of Neville Chamberlain)

"This morning I had another talk with the German Chancellor Herr Hitler.
    Here is the paper which bears his name upon it as well as mine. We regard the agreement signed last night as symbolic of the desire of our two peoples never to go to war with one another again." )We're all getting older
    The light is on and bolder
        We're all getting older
            Decay

The year had come and gone and everyone began to seeWhy did we follow such a fool in such a mindless way?

    Let's turn our hatred to this man - we know he's just a fraud

        We crucify him with the rest and find another God
        How many times have you heard someone's coming here to say

That from your hell on earth that you will love until your graveThis is the story of a man with nothing in his head

    And no-one's going to listen to you when you're dead
        We're all getting older
        The light is on and bolderWe're all getting older

We're all getting older
We're all getting older
We're all getting older
We're all getting older
We're all getting older
We're all getting older
