

Someday

John Mellencamp

Someday, someday
But I don't know when
Someday, someday
But I don't know when Brother, brother, oh brother
Why are you walking down this road here?
This is the road of madness and trouble
It's paved with intolerance, ignorance and fear Someday, someday
But I don't know when
Someday, someday
But I don't know when Drinking our liquor from a paper cup
Mean to each other, enough is enough
I look at your face, you look just like me
Hey brother, I'm not your enemy Someday, someday
But I don't know when
Someday, someday
But I don't know when How many times can a spirit be broken?
For this is the Kingdom of Heaven we're given
Good fortune will come to those who create peace
For those are the ones who will walk in Heaven Someday, someday
But I don't know when
Someday, someday
But I don't know when Someday, someday
But I don't know when
Someday, someday
But I don't know when
