

She's Waiting

Eric Clapton

She's waitin' yea, for another love
(Ohh)

She's waitin', for another love She's been waitin' for another love
Someone that she can show into her heart
And when she finally found a stronger love

Your whole world's gonna fall apart She's waitin', for another love
(Ohh)

She's waitin', for another love You've been abusin' her for far too long
Think you're a king, she's your pawn
Get ready now, 'cause pretty soon

She'll be gone and you'll be on your own She's waitin', for another love
(Ohh)

She's waitin', for another love I see the hunger burnin' in her eye
Any fool could see there's somethin' wrong
You keep pretendin' an' not to care
But I will hear you sing a different song (Ohh)
(Waitin')

She's waitin', for another love
(Ohh)

She's waitin', for another love
(Ohh) She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
(Waitin' for another lover)

(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
(Waitin' for another lover)

She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)
(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
(Waitin' for another lover)
(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
She's waitin'
(Waitin' for another lover)
(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
For another lover
(Waitin' for another lover)
(Hopin' for the time that she'll find another)
(Waitin' for another lover)Waitin' for another lover
Waitin' for another lover
Hopin' for the time that she'll find another
Waitin' for another lover
Waitin' for another lover
