

Michael Jordan

Five for Fighting

My shirt, my hat, my books
A trip to the zoo
My couch, remote, a large Coke yeah
I'd get on my knees, my God
If I could I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you, yeah My job, my car, my cash
My house on the hill
My piano I'd burn to ashes, yeah
I'd get on my knees, my God
If I could I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you, yeah My voice, my worm, my wife
A first born or two
I'd give the knife, my mike if just
Cut me at the knees
My God, my Jordan I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you
