Truth

Sophie Zelmani

I don't wanna find out the truth
I don't wanna find out the truth
But only truth satisfyI want it so much to go away
I want it so much to go away
But with the truth it will stayAnd you will fall heavy upon my chest
But laughing will give the time to rest
I still can breathe when you are asleep
Just let me gasp for peaceI'd like to have other things on my mind
Like to have other things on my mind
I can't choose a lineI wanna wake up and find you
I wanna wake up and find you
If it's true, I won't continue toYou will fall heavy upon my chest
But laughing will give the time to rest
I still can breathe when you are asleep
Just let me gasp for little peaceI still can look like we get along Truth will stay too longI don't know how to get armed
I don't know how to get armed
Truth is hard to charm, so hard to charm
