Malpractice

Testament

We all will go and stay sometime
Soon to be the victim of a crime
Loss of blood and death is near
Take a number, can you wait right hereCheck-in to the place
Reduce your life into disgrace
Isn't there some kind
Of better wayWhen it's time to operate
Fatalistic figures hold to fate
Just relax, you'll feel no pain
Hope they put you in the right domainPatients helpless to defy
Negligence is whyCheck-in to the place
Reduce your life into disgrace
Isn't there some kind
Of better wayWithin the laws, they'll rip you off
Then write you off malpractice
And in the end they'll let you in
Please come again, malpracticeSuffer until you get well
Bleak existence like a prison cell
If you find your life is lost
Dedicate the world to pay the costPatients helpless to defy
Negligence is whyCheck-in to the place
Reduce your life into disgrace
Isn't there some kind
Of better wayWithin the laws, they'll rip you off
Then write you off malpractice
And in the end they'll let you in
Please come again, malpracticeMalpractice
