

Back In His Arms Again

Mark Schultz

I see it in your eyes
The pain you keep inside
Slowly tearing you apart

And though you've run away
Reminded day by day
You've stumbled and you've fallin
Still he's callin

Chorus:

Cause I believe that he loves you where you are
I believe that you've seen the hands of God
I believe that you'll know it when you're back in his arms again
I believe that he never let you go
I believe that he's wanting you to know
I believe that he'll lead you till your back in his arms again

I'm glad I found you here
Cause inbetween the tears
Something in your eyes shows hope
And I stand before you now
As one that knows about
Coming to him open and broken

Chorus:

And i know that he's callin
He's callin you home

Chours:

echoed :(One life One love One way home)
And when you rise and when you fall
He will see you through it all
He is with you through it all
Back in his arms again

Chorus:

Your back in his arms
back in his arms again
