

Rescue You

Michael Constantino

I admire what you doing
What you pursuing
Oh oh oh yeah
But it ain't right
You working all day
You working all night
And you just tryna live a meaningful life There is so much more so much more
Promise you gon do
So let me rescue you, let me rescue you Girl let me show you something
Now look to the sky Make a wish on a count to 3 then open your eyes Any stress and obligation that you had no longer waiting How bout we pretend that it's gone And I can tell you what we'll do for our little vacation, baby
Let's go somewhere it's warm I've got my eyes on you and I want to give you the world
Not cause you want me to
But cause you deserve it girl I admire what you doing
What you pursuing
Oh oh yeah
But it ain't right
You working all day
You working all night
And you just tryna live a meaningful life There is so much more so much more
Promise you gon do
So let me rescue you, let me rescue you Girl let me show you something
I think you gon like
Have you ever seen a private plane awhile
You wanna see one tonight You got no time for a man I completely understand Deep down you want more You can tell me what you have
And what more that you've got baby
But is it really you now I've got my eyes on you
and I want to give you the world
Not cause you want me to
But cause you deserve it girl I admire what you doing
What you pursuing
Oh oh oh yeah
But it ain't right
You working all day
You working all night
And you just tryna live a meaningful life There is so much more so much more

Promise you gon do
So let me rescue you, let me rescue youPlease don't take this wrong
You work so hard to get where you are
But you don't have to do it alone
I'd like to be the one
To take away your worries
But only if you trust me
You trust me?I admire what you doing
What you pursuing
Oh oh oh yeah
You working all day
You working all night
Promise you gon do
So let me rescue you, let me rescue you
