Rolling Rock (feat. Tropidelic)

Shrub

i'm like a rolling rock, perched up on the mountain top, when, the winds from the west, push me over, and i start to dropi start gaining speed, the valley's coming quickly, when oh shit. bam!!! i smash into a tree,i rest there a decade, just sitting there naked, just waiting there patient, then the earth starts shakin'tree falls over, as it's roots start breaking, one of its branches, hits me "bam" on my head,damn!!! here i go again, rolling down the mountain, here i go again,
splash into the fountain.i fall as the waterfalls, plunge as the water crashes, glide in the current's flow, toss in the cool rapids.and i feel like i'm drowning, and the water's getting deep,
i'm having trouble breathing,
as i start to fall asleep,i'm locked in own my hell,
i can't find the key,
i scream for my life,
but,
nobody hears me.rollin x 24oh yeahhhhsomebody told me it's a lonely road so take it slow but that was many years ago look mamai built a family away from home it's been a long, long time my motivation is to see the cowd from town to town use my illusion now and the feeling that i get when im onstage with my homes is a real good vibe, real good vibe.all hands to the beat woo all shoes to the street yeah and my final destination is a better state of reality, yeahand i feel like i'm drowning,
and the water's getting deep,
i'm having trouble breathing,
as i start to fall asleep,i'm locked in own my hell,
i can't find the key,

i scream for my life,
but,
nobody hears me.i'm locked in own my hell,
i can't find the key,
i scream for my life,
but,
nobody hears me.
