Solitude Within

Evergrey

Cold is the air that I breath
Sleepless
But I don't mind the rain
With fear I striveBut still enjoying the pain
I'm awaiting the dawn
As I welcome the endIf you ever felt the way that I feel
Helpless
And help is all you need
In tears you tryBut there is no way
No way you can win
Solitude withinCold
But I don't mind the rain
Fear ofMy heart is pounding
Never so frightened
My body's trembling
I'm dying, dyingCold
But I don't mind the rain
Fear of
Being alone againAll I ever wished for
Was a vengeance on solitude
And all I ever longed for
The presence of youCold
But I don't mind the rain
Fear of
Being alone againCold
But I don't mind the rain
Fear of
