

Judgement Day

Raging Fyah

One thing I've got to say, you better not trouble this man
My fears have gone away out of babylon Cause I already Paid for the wrongs that i've done so i can safely say I a Rasta son On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock regg-ae music, playing sweet in heaven
On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock reggae music playing sweet in heaven
The foolish man built up his house upon the sand but Rastaman built up his temple on a firm foundation he who knows, knows you better know your self don't sit aside and criticize, go on and help your self
On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock regg-ae music, playing sweet in heaven
On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock reggae music playing sweet in heaven
Guitar solo
x 4
On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock regg-ae music, playing sweet in heaven
On Judgement Day i'll be playing music for the rebels
Roots rock reggae music playing sweet in heaven

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>