

No Girl so Sweet

PJ Harvey

In came the girl with the saddened eyes
And asked him over again and again
"Was I too weak? Was I a child?
And can't we leave here and start again?" Said, "I don't mind if you take me down
And I don't mind if you break it all
But how much more can you take from me?
How much more did you take from me?" I'd like to take you inside my head
I'd like to take you inside of me
"You came from Heaven" is all he said
"You came from Heaven and came here to me
And I love you, love you, love you" He drove it fast to make the night
And looked at his angel where she lay
Restin' her head and closed her eyes
And outside the heat and the summer fades Deep in the sky, a storm he'd seen
Deep in the sky, a storm he'd seen
There ain't nothin' no girl so sweet Took her from Heaven and gave her to me
Took her from Heaven and gave her to me
Took her from Heaven and gave her to me
Took her from Heaven and gave her to me
Took her from Heaven and gave her to me
