Twist of Fate

Hey Romeo

I spilled my coffee on my shirt
Can't Find my keys again
Destined to be late for work
Will send my boss around my bend
But as I'm running out the door
You know that i dont have a time
But you lean and kiss me,
Tell me i was pretty and the stars magically align

Oohh, you give me that smile and you touch my hand,
I don't have to say a word,
You understand
I know everything, is gonna be fine
Ooh, I'm so thankful baby
You're mine
Cause you're my beautiful twist of fate
You make any bad day..... GREAT

I only got a couple miles
Before my tank landed on E
You could say I was wreck
Before you came and rescued me,
Somehow you turn it all around
