

Voodoo Woman

Bobby Goldsboro

You make a rose afraid to grow.
You make a wind forget to blow.
You make the sun up in the sky forget to shine,
And you are driving me out of my mind, now.
You make a bell forget to ring.
You make a bird forget to sing.
You make a weeping willow tree forget to cry,
And you bring clouds that cover up the sky now.
You're a voodoo woman, that's plain to see.
You're a voodoo woman, so stay away from me.
You make a dog forget to growl.
You make the wind forget to howl.
And voodoo woman you break every heart you see,
So voodoo woman stay away from me now.
You're a voodoo woman, that's plain to see,
You're a voodoo woman, so stay away from me.
You make a dog forget to growl.
You make the wind forget to howl.
And voodoo woman you break every heart you see,
So voodoo woman stay away from me.
