This Old Feeling

The Go-go's

This old feeling, it's new to me
I'm not sure how I should be
I'd tattoo my vow for all to see
To prove how much you mean to me
A million times said in as many songs
But before you, I could never sing along
This old feeling, it's got me up
I can't believe my good luck
I'd wait at your door till eternity
Because you mean that much to me
Well, a million times said in as many songs
But before you, I could never sing along
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
Yes, I do
This old feeling that is got me up
My head, it just can't believe my good luck
I'd wait at your door till eternity
Because you mean that much to me
Well, a million times said in as many songs
But before you, I could never sing along
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
Yes, I do
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
I love you
(Oh yes, I do)
Yes, I do
