Change

Kevin Spacey

Whatever you've done it's all over
Wherever you've been is so strange
Yesterday's long gone forever
Damned if what you're feelin' isn't change.Music that used to seem hollow
Now seems to fit in your range
Today is the now and the never
Damned if what you're feelin' isn't change.It's fun to wander along a yesterday road
Trying so hard to retain
All of the wondrous and beautiful times that never can happen again.So get yourself up off your past, friend
There's so much to rearrange
Tomorrow sits right next to never Damned if what your feelin' isn't change.
