

Driven

Kiasmos

Stop the man from endin' up with all the chips
So he can't promise him an only chance
To have the freedom that's been taken from me
 You can try to lift your head, no
You  up with me, now live with the truth
 Find a reason to lie, try
 Seems like it hasn't been long
 I've given so much, how could you hide?
You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven
 You try to wash it away, wash it away
Ask again, why, all the dreams I had are now left broken
 Punished for a wounded past
 Afraid to wake and find reality breathin'
 Why has life been taken from me?
I  up and now I live with the truth
 With no reason to lie
 I feel like it hasn't been long
 I'm driven to keep myself alive
You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven
 You'll never wash it away, wash it away
 How can you live with yourself?
 Seems like it hasn't been long
 I've given so much, how could you hide?
[Incomprehensible] you have your freedom for leavin'
 'Cause you go wash it away
 I feel like it hasn't been long
 I'm driven to keep myself alive
You're sick with all the guilt, you're never forgiven
 I'll never wash it away, wash it away
 Stop dreamin'
