Can I Keep Him

Anja Garbarek

In the end there was no one to see No helicopters in the sky the next day Or the day after no one was searching 'Cause no one knew he was missingHe followed me home Can I keep him? He followed meA pretty boy like you With hands that could break me in two but don't Breaking away gently Come on, let's goHe's still warm And close to me I can see tears in his eyes And I feel betterHe followed me home Can I keep him? He followed meIn the end there was no one to see No helicopters in the sky the next day Or the day after no one was searching 'Cause no one knew he was missing
