

Hallelujah

Sammy Hagar

Some go down on a borderline
Another one die in a neighborhood
Someone cheers, a mother cries
Evil versus good So welcome to the world's arena
Where love, power and war
Where blood, sweat and tears
Gets an encore And there's another one behind that one
And behind that one lies another one
And still growing up, there's a youngest son
And he don't mind dying, we sing Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
It's a glory, hollow Hallelujah Yeah, there's another one behind that one
And behind that one lies another one
And still growing up, there's a youngest son
And he don't mind dying and the world sings Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
It's a glory, hollow Hallelujah
Hollow Hallelujah, glory Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
