

Satellite

Eddie Vedder

It's no shame that Love's a game that I can only play with you what I'm saying is I'm here waiting for you I've seen the light I'm satisfied that the brightest star that's you Satellite I'm holding tight Beaming back to you Days turn into Night turns into Days turn into today
Don't think I'm out playin' cause I'm inside waiting for you I've felt the light I'm satisfied that the highest high is you Satellite I'm holding tight
Beaming back to you Don't you worry
I believe your story
You were put away
for something you didn't do But I'm waiting
I've been saving my love...
