

Youâ€™re Not Alone

Lacey Sturm

Itâ€™s been hard for me to breathe for such a long time
Only escaped so I could hold you in to ease your mind
I canâ€™t hold you anymore tonight
And I feel your heart is breaking as I let go
And it hurts me to believe in but you must know
I canâ€™t hold you anymore tonight

When no one else can save you
Remember

You're not alone
Beyond the universe
Echoes out a promise to us
Where the darkness meets the day
Youâ€™re not alone
Close as the two of us
Stronger than the pain runs through us
You can hear the angels sing
That youâ€™re not alone
You're not alone

When the memories come to haunt you with the sad lie
"No one loves you, they all leave you! So why even try?"
Let truth hold you in loving arms tonight
When you feel that youâ€™re the only one you can trust
And it proves a lie when you're the one you self-destruct
Let truth hold you in loving arms tonight

When no one else can save you
Remember

You're not alone
Beyond the universe
Echoes out a promise to us
Where the darkness meets the day
Youâ€™re not alone
Close as the two of us
Stronger than the pain runs through us
You can feel it when you pray
That youâ€™re not alone

You're not alone

Love will never leave
Truth will not forsake
Eternal thoughts will keep your heart safe
Love will never leave
Truth will not forsake
Eternal thoughts will keep your heart safe
Close as the two of us
Stronger than the pain runs through us

You can hear the angels sing
That youâ€™re not alone

Beyond the universe
Echoes of a promise to us
Where the darkness meets the day

Youâ€™re not alone

Youâ€™re not alone
