Searching Eyes

Unjust

it pulls me to you draws me near to the open doors that hold the limits we can share! for the minute share! for the minute fucking just a little but its better to have been by your side, one time by your side!in my eyes you will find what lies in my searching eyeslook into these eyes lose yourself with mine then we remember
the lost time when we were dreams... in a vision.
