Scar

Cloud Control

I've got a lump in my throat from letting you in my mind
There's still a hope in my heart that somehow we'll never die
I hate to break apart your life this early on
But when the morning light arrives, I'll be gone

It's just so hard
Even if I try
I will not lie
I want a scar
Look at you so fly
Make me high

I've got a lump in my throat from hearing you ask me why
There's still a hope in my heart that somehow we'll stay alive
I hate to break apart your heart this early on
But when the morning light arrives, I'll be gone

It's just so hard
Even if I try
I will not lie
I want a scar
Look at you so fly

My hands are tied, I can't deny
The way I feel
My hands are tied, I can't decide
The way I feel
My hands are tied, I can't deny
The way I feel, no

It's just so hard
Even if I try
I will not lie
I want a scar
Look at you so fly
Make me high
