Girl in the Mirror

Cheryl

You can always sense with me
When things ain't quite right
I barely speak, I can't seem to sit still tight
There's many things that run and pass
Through my mind
It's hard to show
When you're the only one with your eyes
Life expects me to be strong
Doesn't always mean I've got to sing that song
Need to take it easy on yourself
I need to take it easy on myself
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Stressing me to be a woman
Oh I don't need this today
I don't know quite what to say
To the girl in the mirror
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
Picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
Take this time to think things out right
Cause when I'm weak all I seem to do is fight
There's many ways that I could say I'm not fine
Instead I hold it back with water filling my eyes
Life expects me to be strong
Doesn't always mean I've got to sing that song
Need to take it easy on yourself
I need to take it easy on myself
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Stressing me to be a woman
Oh I don't need this today

I don't know quite what to say
To the girl in the mirror
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
Picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Stressing me to be a woman
Oh I don't need this today
I don't know quite what to say
To the girl in the mirror
I've been picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
Picking little fights
With the girl in the mirror
With the girl in the mirror
Mirror, mirror, mirror
