Our Last Summer

A*Teens

The summer air was soft and warm
The feeling right, the Paris night
Did it's best to please us
And strolling down the Elysee
We had a drink in each cafeAnd you

You talked of politics, philosophy

And I smiled like Mona Lisa

We had our chance

It was a fine and true romanceI can still recall our last summer

I still see it all

Walks along the Seine, laughing in the rain

Our last summer

Memories that remainWe made our way along the river

And we sat down in the grass

By the Eiffel tower

I was so happy we had met

It was the age of no regret, oh yes Those crazy years, that was the time

Of the flower-power

But underneath we had a fear of flying

Of getting old, a fear of slowly dying

We took the chance

Like we were dancing our last danceI can still recall our last summer

I still see it all

In the tourist jam, 'round the Notre Dame

Our last summer

Walking hand in handParis restaurants, our last summer

Morning croissants

Living for the day, worries far away

Our last summer

We could laugh and playAnd now you're working in a bank

The family man, the football fan

And your name is Harry

How dull it seems

Yet you're the hero of my dreamsI can still recall our last summer

I still see it all

Walks along the Seine, laughing in the rain

Our last summer

Memories that remainI can still recall our last summer

I still see it all

In the tourist jam, 'round the Notre Dame
Our last summer
Walking hand in handParis restaurants, our last summer
Morning croissants
Living for the day, worries far away
Our last summer
We can laugh and playI can still recall our last summer
I still see it all
Walks along the Seine, laughing in the rain
Our last summer
Memories that remainI can still recall our last summer
I still see it all
In the tourist jam, 'round the Notre Dame
Our last summer
Walking hand in hand
