

Bandera Waltz

Bruce Robison

I danced with an angel one night neath the stars
Where cowboys were singing and picking guitars
The tune they were playing was a beautiful waltz
They called it Bandera, the Bandera Waltz
The music so sweet seemed to whisper to me
She loves me, she loves me, what else could it be
Now she's gone and left me with a love that was false
Now I remember Bandera, the Bandera Waltz
The music so sweet seemed to whisper to me
She loves me, she loves me, what else could it be
Now she's gone and left me with a love that was false
Now, I remember Bandera and the Bandera Waltz
I remember Bandera and the Bandera Waltz
