Lost And Found By Trial And Error

Steppenwolf

So, once again I hurt someone Because I found out that she's not the one I'm looking for So, once again I blame someone Because I know that she can't use the love I have in storeAnd now she's gone And I'm glad her story ends Still I wish I had been kinder We could have parted just like friendsSo, one more time I've played Lost the game Another face in the past Without a nameBack in the night To find a light And hoping this time I'll be rightI know you don't know me But I need your company Don't wanna be alone tonight You can trust me girl, you'll be alrightLooked at me With big brown eyes She said, "Yes" To my surpriseAnd now I call her in the morning And I see her every night I see her in the evening
