

Desperate

The Shires

My heart still skips a beat
When you look at me
You don't even know the things you do, do you
You can still take me by surprise
And keep me up all night
Is it crazy i'm still crazy after all this time
I'm desperate, for your love
Is lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate, to tell you that
After all of the years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you
They said we'll have our date but sunset never came and i want you more than ever, yes i do and i still shiver when you touch me
I never get enough
Is it crazy i'm still crazy after all this time ohhh
I'm desperate, for your love
Lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate, to tell you that
After all of these years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you
I'm still desperate for you oh oh oh x3
I'm desperate, for your love
Lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out ohhh
I'm desperate, for your love
Lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate, to tell you that
After all of these years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you
Desperate for you
Mmmmm
