

Chasdei

Yaakov Chesed

He wakes up in the night
Looks into his baby's eyes
And he'd do anything for him
The child begins to cry

He doesn't realize
That his fathers standing over him
We may not realize our father watching us
We may not see his eyes but he sure sees us
Chasdei hashem ki lo samnu
Ki lo Chalu Rachamav

When he needs a helping hand
He reaches out for Him guides us to the very land
That our fathers were given
He reaches into my soul
Helps me open my eyes
Brings life to this world

Helps me realize
Hush little baby don't you cry
Your father won't say goodbye
Hush little world don't you cry
Your father won't say goodbye

Chasdei...
